

Anthropology and the Internet
The Internet for Anthropology Students: creative workshop

Friday 25th October 2002

- 9.30 - 9.45 Registration. Tea and Coffee
- 9.45 NWAS - Introduction and Aims of NWAS
- 9.50 Presentation: Use of the Internet for Anthropology Students.
- Anthropology and research on the Internet.
 - Online digital ethnographic work
- 10.35 Anthropology projects: presentation of other students projects in UWL
- Anthropology Society
 - The Tairona Heritage Trust & survival
 - Cine-Club
 - Offprint library
- 11.00am Employability Unit. After your degree...What's next?
- 11.30 TEa and Coffee
- 11.45 Virtual Ethnographies. Principles and Practices.
- 1.00 -2.00 Lunch (Free lunch at the Department of Anthropology)
- 2.00 Hands-on Workshop
- practical issues of design and content for anthropology on the Internet
 - How to make a webpage for anthropological projects
 - how to use ethnographic material: pictures, text and video on a webpage
- 3.30 Tea & Coffee break
- 3.45 Hands-on Workshop continues
- 5.00 Conclusion